

SEMI-WEEKLY INTERIOR JOURNAL.

VOL. XXVI.

STANFORD, KY., TUESDAY, OCTOBER 12, 1897.

NO. 64

HUSTONVILLE.

Dr. Brown is yet a very sick man. James Devers is improving quite rapidly.

The protracted meeting at Concord closed Sunday night with about 25 additions to the church.

Quite a number of our good people went to Lebanon Monday to hear the gospel of temporal salvation expounded by the only, greatest American statesman of to-day—W. J. Bryan.

Miss Helen, the accomplished daughter of J. H. Taylor, who has been quite low with typhoid fever in Chicago, returned home Saturday. She has not fully recovered, but under the watchful care of loving parents whose place none can fill, she will soon be herself again.

James W. Givens will leave about the 15th for Lexington, Miss., with a car load of good horses. He would have gone earlier but for the Yellow Jack at Durant, where he unloads his stock. Joshua Swope, who is quarantined at Florence, S. C., writes very distressingly of the situation there. He can't leave nor can he sell his stock but lives in hopes of an early frost and free silver.

Mr. Emmett McCormack informs me that there has been quite a kaleidoscopic change in the management of affairs of the great (?) cattle combine and that since his dismissal James C. Coulter has been expelled for improper manipulation of monetary matters. The petition of G. D. McCarty with a $75 check for membership was rejected and the check returned.

The county solicitor, W. R. Williams, for the Kentucky Insurance Co. at Lexington, informs us that he wrote over $20,000 insurance last month. With the assistance of the secretary, Mr. R. B. Kendall, of Lexington, he thinks he will write $25,000 the coming week. He refers to such men in this county as L. B. Adams, Hon. B. B. King, John K. Baughman, Josiah Bishop, J. E. Wright, F. F. Sandridge, Dr. Woods Logan, Jerry Briscoe and hundreds of others.

M. G. Noble, of Austin, Texas, arrived here Sunday to look after 5,000 acres of land to which he holds a title. Upon proper application of the clerk's office process, we found the lands to be located upon the headwaters of Martin's creek and upon Steele's Knob in Casey county, and is now occupied by Joe McCain, the Atwoods, the Ramsom Lumber Co., the Wiborg & Hanna Co. and others. The deed he brings was made by J. Early to Patrick Henry in 1784 and it was never transferred. Suit will be brought against all parties holding this land with whom a satisfactory settlement can not be made or who has not a deed from the court for sale of same on account of taxes.

RELIGIOUS.

Rev. J. M. Cook, of Highland, is holding a protracted meeting at Coffey's school-house.

Eld. J. S. Shouse's three weeks meeting at Midway resulted in 19 additions to the Christian church.

The Richmond Baptist church has called Rev. I. B. Timberlake, of New Albany, Ind., and he will accept.

There were 300 preachers who applied for the one vacant chaplaincy in the United States army last week. The rank and pay are those of a captain.

Rev. J. B. Webb, a Presbyterian minister, aged 75, was struck by a freight train while standing on the track at Maysville and seriously injured.

The preachers at Harrodsburg held a union service to pray for rain, but judging by results the prayers were not of the righteous, leastwise they availed nothing.

W. N. Briney, of Leesburg, Ky., has just closed a meeting for the church at Kirkville, which resulted in 18 additions. His brother, R. B., is the preacher for this congregation and is doing excellent work.—Messenger.

Bishop Key announces his unequivocal opposition to union between the Northern and Southern Methodist churches. He says: "I believe that when people fall out—or, to change the figure, obtain a divorce—they should not re-unite."

The members of the Woman's Piousness and Home Mission Society will observe their annual week of prayer, beginning yesterday afternoon at 2:30 in the Methodist church and will continue throughout the week, closing Sunday evening at 7 o'clock with an open session given by the young ladies, consisting of music and explanation of our work. Topics for the week as follows: Monday, "Week of Prayer," led by Mrs. W. S. Orinstead, president. Tuesday, "Education and Literature," by Mrs. J. P. Davis, vice-president. Wednesday, "General and Local Work," by Mrs. J. E. Lynn. Thursday, "The Treasury," by Mrs. S. P. Stagg, treasurer. Friday, "City Missions," by Mrs. Anna McClary. Mrs. T. D. Raney, secretary.

LANCASTER.

H. C. Arnold sold a yoke of cattle to James Layton at 2½c and several feeders at 3c.

Miss Lula Batson, G. M. Patterson and I. C. Rucker are still very sick of fever, there being other cases that are not dangerous.

Rev. G. W. Young, of Richmond, will deliver a temperance lecture at the Methodist church, this city, Tuesday night, 12th.

C. W. Frisbie had made arrangements to go West, but has concluded to remain long enough to vote the democratic ticket, and it will be his first vote.

I have learned that the Central Record is soon to have a brand new suit. While it is not much needed the editor is enterprising and should have what he wants.

Proof of the death of I. N. Gastineau has been forwarded to headquarters of the Maccabees and his widow will soon receive $2,000, as that Order pays very promptly.

Democratic camp fires are burning brightly all over the county and there is enough of zeal and energy to feed the flames until the shouts of victory are heard on Nov. 2d.

The facts that ladies are frequently assaulted and are often drowned proves that every young lady should be taught to shoot and to swim. I will open a class in target practice any time and give lessons in swimming as soon as it rains.

A great many attended the opening of millinery at Mrs. Moody Hardin's store last Saturday. All the latest designs and most fashionable styles were on exhibition, having been beautifully and artistically arranged by her skillful hand.

The young ladies and gentlemen of our city are preparing to organize a literary society, the object of which will be to read, study and discuss the productions of standard authors, and to offer their own views on different subjects. This is a move in the right direction and would be a great benefit to the rising generation, especially in keeping young men from gambling and drinking dens, which are the guide posts to perdition, and cultivating their mental and spiritual attributes in a manner that will prepare them for good citizenship here and a happy existence hereafter. Let the good work go on.

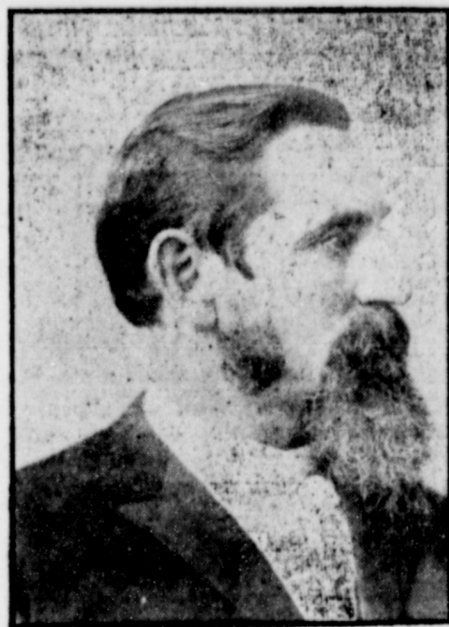

The Lancaster band is preparing a lecture course to be given here, beginning the latter part of this month and concluding in April. Five of the most gifted speakers will be engaged, among them Robert J. Burdett and Gen. John B. Gordon. Season tickets will be issued at the low rate of $3 or two for $5. It will be necessary to deposit a guarantee before the first lecture and tickets are now on sale at Stormes' drug store. The boys have been kind in playing to raise funds for charitable purposes and in giving concerts in Central Park, and the people should patronize them in this enterprise. Beside this, the lectures will be worth the money.

In the excitement of the election we should not forget to vote on the question of issuing bonds to purchase the turnpikes. They will cost about $35,000 and this would be much cheaper on the taxpayer than the guard system, which would cost more than that amount in one year. Besides that the majority voted for free roads. I voted against them, but, of two evils, I have been taught to take the least. The medicine is bitter, but it is the only means by which we can reach the disease, and free the county from midnight raiders, or from a debt that would lead to bankruptcy.

Petitions have been filed with the county clerk to place the following names on the poll-books for city councilmen: J. M. Higginbotham, J. E. Stormes, J. C. Thompson, T. Currey, J. C. Robinson, G. S. Gaines and W. J. Romans, and R. Kinnaird for mayor. Judge E. Brown has also been entered for police judge and petitions for all the democratic candidates have been filed to ratify the nominations. Work has begun in earnest and the democrats are in good spirits. Some of the better class of colored men have declared themselves free from lash of republican bosses and determined to vote as they please. They are beginning to realize the fact that they have no use for them after they vote, that they will never hold an office and that the democrats give them employment and furnish them a support. This declaration of independence is as important to them as the Emancipation Proclamation.

The longest stretch of straight railroad line in America is on the Lake Shore railway, beginning at a point three miles west of Toledo, O., and running 69 miles without a curve.

So great is the commotion in the sun that astronomers say the noise would kill a human being at a distance of 5,000 miles.

MICAIAH CHRISMAN SAUFLEY.

Present circuit judge of the 13th judicial district of Kentucky, and democratic nominee for re-election to the same office, was born in Monticello, May 13, 1842. About the time he finished an academic education, the war broke out and in November 1861 he entered the Confederate army as a private in Breckinridge's brigade of Kentucky Infantry and was afterward made first lieutenant of Co. H, 6th Kentucky Cavalry, First Brigade of Morgan's command. He was with the dashing commander in his fearless raids into the enemy's territory and was captured in Ohio and incarcerated in the penitentiary at Allegheny City, Pa. Johnson's Island, and Fort Delaware, suffering great privations and hardships. He was exchanged a short time before the close of the war and returned to Kentucky. Having a fondness for the law, he began to study it and fitted himself for the profession at the Louisville Law School, where he graduated with honors.

He practiced at Monticello for a year or two and after marrying Miss Sallie Rowan, of McMinnville, Tenn., in March 1867, came shortly afterwards to Stanford and located, forming a partnership with Col. W. G. Welch for the practice of his profession, in which he soon forced to the front. In 1870 he was elected county judge, making the best official that ever held the office in this county.

A democrat by birth and choice, he is a most able expounder of its principles and an earnest advocate of the cause of the people. He was on the Gen. Hancock electoral ticket in 1880 and in 1888 President Cleveland appointed him associate justice of the supreme court of Wyoming, which position he filled with great credit till the territory became a State.

A very lawless state of affairs existed when the judge first went to Wyoming, but he soon brought order out of chaos and made the power of the law supreme. He fined and imprisoned right and left and it was soon demonstrated to those who defied the courts and the law that that sort of doings would not be permitted while he occupied the bench. Judge Saufley is a man of great courage and it was put to the test on many occasions. Once, it is told when a mob was trying to secure a prisoner to lynch him, the judge seized a pistol and held it in check and succeeded in preventing what would have been the murder of an innocent man. He is very jealous of the dignity and respect due his office as many a man, who has been fined can testify since he has been on the bench. His record in Wyoming, like that here, is a brilliant one, the United States supreme court sustaining most of his decisions there as the court of appeals has here.

In November 1892, the people of this district elected him circuit judge over Capt. Wm. Herndon, of Lancaster, by 715 majority and his party proud of his record, nominated him last spring for the office again and they are determined to elect him next month. All parties recognize his ability and fairness, and many republicans will vote to continue him on the bench that he has elevated and honored. Judge Saufley's charges to the grand jury are models of conciseness and judicial soundness and invariably draw a crowd to the court-house when it is known that he will perform that duty himself.

Though Judge Saufley has not appeared on the stump since his election to the bench, he is one of the finest orators in the country, his speeches being eloquent in diction and singularly pure in English.

Much of Judge Saufley's success in life is due to the efforts of a very loving and estimable wife. She is a great-grand daughter of Gov. Caswell, the first governor of North Carolina, and when the judge married her, Mr. Henry Watterson, the great editor, who was present, says she was next to the prettiest bride he ever looked upon. She still retains much of her youthful beauty, mellowed now into motherly loveliness. Their union resulted in eight children and they now have five grand children.

MATRIMONIAL.

Mrs. James Dunaway, of Irvine, secured a divorce one day and drank car-bolic acid the next.

Miss Minnie, daughter of Maj. L. M. Drye, of Bradfordsville, will wed E. C. Lewis, of Cincinnati, Oct. 14.

James Taylor, aged 72 and three times a widower, and Mrs. Barsheba Moniac, a widow of 71, were married in Anderson county last week.

W. L. Baker, cashier of the Monticello Banking Co., and Miss Zona Ramsey, daughter of I. C. Ramsey, of Monticello, were married last week.

Royal Wilkinson, of Liberty, and Miss Pearl Cundiff, of Mintonville, were married at the bride's home by Elder J. Q. Montgomery last week.

A St. Louis woman sold her husband for $4,000 to a woman who said she had looked the country over and could find no one she could love as she does him.

Miss Rena Skidmore married her step-mother's brother, Worthy Davis, at Parkersburg, W. Va., becoming her own aunt and her mother's sister-in-law.

James Seanton, aged 68 and twice a widower, was married at Glenn Falls, N. Y., to 17-year-old Susie Singleton, to whom he was introduced only 12 hours before.

Arthur Skirvin, of Dry Ridge, Grant county, and Miss Hannah Murphy, of Rowland, obtained marriage license Friday and will be married at Boston next Friday.

The marriage of Miss Marcia Warren and Mr. Allen Hite will be solemnized at the home of the bride in Louisville, Wednesday evening, November 10. Miss Virginia Lee, of Danville, will be one of the bridesmaids.

It is said in Georgia that the young wife of Gen. James Longstreet will soon resume her post as assistant State librarian at the capitol in Atlanta. A woman of 22 will soon get through with her honeymoon with a man of 75.

A dispatch from Nicholasville says that John Kirkpatrick met Miss Maggie Crow at a protracted meeting near there and proposed to her. She accepted and they drove 30 miles to Georgetown to catch a train for Cincinnati, where they were married. The bride is a daughter of Zebadiah Crow, who was telegraphed as soon as the knot was tied.

In Joe Waters' Stanford letter to the Harrodsburg Sayings he said "Preacher Faulconer, of Lancaster, talked through a hole in the wall over here thinking he was connected with Lancaster." A Record man twitted the good natured divine over the matter, and he said: "It is my painful duty once every month to wait two or three hours for a train at Kildee town. Many times have I wished that some kind friend would suggest a good way in spending these moments of complete monotony, which were in no hurry to pass. I shall be forever indebted to my friend Walton for his ingenious plan, talking through a 'hole in the wall' to Lancaster. Well, you can't imagine the relief of my weary soul. Without a moments delay, I proceeded and found it more delightful to talk to the people in Lancaster through a 'hole in the wall' over the wires of imagination, than to fish in the 'low waters' of the INTERIOR force. I am truly glad the boys are connected with the outside world and on my next trip I hope to find that 'through that hole,' they have heard something to talk about, and that out of 'that hole' Waters will softly flow.—Lancaster Record.

DON'T fail to take advantage of the low rate to Cincinnati, given to the Turnersville Christian Endeavor Society, on Saturday, October 16th. The rate is $2.25 for adults and $1.25 for children. Train No. 4 will leave McKinney at 3:02 A. M., Moreland, 3:11 A. M., arrive in Cincinnati 7:30 P. M. Leave Cincinnati No. 3 at 8:00 P. M., arrive at Moreland 12:15, McKinney 12:24. Persons desiring to go from this section may procure tickets at McRoberts' drug store on 14th and 15th, and take train at Junction City at 3:46 A. M. L. & N. Train leaves Stanford at 3:13 A. M. This is a first-class excursion and will be conducted in the best style.

A CARD.

It gives me pleasure to recommend to the public generally Miss Julia Beard, of Louisville, who has nursed my wife during her illness. She is tender and painstaking in a sick room, ever watchful of her patient's interests and to her careful ministrings I attribute no little of my wife's promised recovery.

M. S. BAUGHMAN.

Louisville Methodists laid the corner stone of their new Broadway church last week.

Last week was a record breaker for the Tennessee Centennial Exposition. The attendance was 92,445.

When a widow begins to wear a dotted veil it means that the worst is over.

POLK MILLER

At Walton's Opera House, Wednesday eve

OCTOBER 20TH, 1897.

J. L. Frohman & Co.

THE GLOBE

CLOTHIERS!

Danville, Ky.,

Will PAY Your TOLL

Going and returning from this county when you purchase as much as $10 worth from them.

Coal, Hay, Oats, Straw,

Shipstuf, &c. In fact all kinds of Mixed Feed at the LOWEST MARKET PRICE.

We are prepared to

Sell COAL Cheaper

Than any one and now is the time to buy before prices advance. Come and See Us.

J. H. BAUGHMAN & CO.

METAL ROOFING.

FLOORING,

SIDING,

A. C. SINE,

STANFORD, KY.

CEILING,

FINISH.

Farm and Yard Fence.

WINDOW GLASS.

Our stock now complete at Lowest Cash Prices.

DRUGS, BOOKS
AND STATIONERY.

Every thing New and Latest Styles in Writing Paper, Tablets and Cards.

W. B. McROBERTS.

DRUGGIST, STANFORD, KY.

"Where to Send My Girl to School?" Send Her to Stanford College.

It has full Courses of Study in all departments. It has trained and experienced teachers. It has all needful facilities for the thorough training of girls in all grades. It was established for the welfare and convenience of Stanford and Lincoln county. Let all the people of Stanford and vicinity, instead of dissipating their influence by patronizing other schools, rally around the College and give it their united and hearty support. Next Session opens Sept. 6th. For full information call on Mrs. Saufley at the college or write for catalogue. WM. SHELTON, PRESIDENT.

QUEEN & CRESCENT.

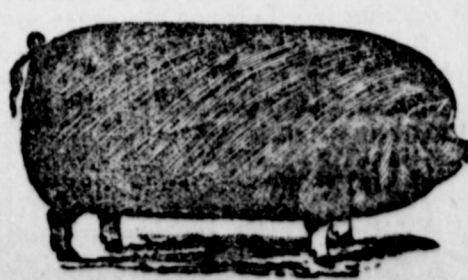

During the Tennessee Centennial and International Exposition at Nashville, Tenn., a low rate special tariff has been established for the sale of tickets from Cincinnati and other terminal points on the Queen & Crescent Route.

Tickets are on sale daily until further notice to Chattanooga at $4.55 one way or $4.90 round trip from Junction City, the round trip tickets being good seven days to return; other tickets, with longer return limit, at $7.30 and at $9.95 for the round trip.

These rates enable the public to visit Nashville and other Southern point at rates never before offered. Festive trains of the finest class are at the disposal of the passenger, affording a most pleasant trip, and enabling one to visit the very interesting scenery and important battle-grounds in and about Chattanooga, Lookout Mountain and Chickamauga National Military Park. Tickets to Nashville to visit the Centennial can be purchased at Chattanooga for $3.40 round trip. Ask your ticket agent for ticket via the Q. & C. Route South or write to

JAMES ROY, Agt. Junction City, or

W. C. RINEARSON, G. P. A. Cincinnati.

THE BLUE-GRASS HERD

Thoroughbred Duroc Jersey RED HOGS,

My breeders were selected from the best herds of this famous breed of swine in several States. A splendid lot of pigs of different ages for sale. Bred for a specialty. Satisfaction guaranteed. Correspondence solicited. Address

R. H. BRONAUH,
48 Orchard, Ky.

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL

STANFORD, KY., OCTOBER 12, 1897

W. P. WALTON.

SIX PAGES.

As an original proposition, the INTERIOR JOURNAL opposed free turnpikes, believing that those who use the pikes should pay for it, instead of placing a further load upon the overburdened taxpayer. When the question was submitted its editor voted against freeing them. A good majority of the voters differed with him, however, and voted for free pikes. It was afterwards found to be true what the paper suggested at the time, that the election had not been called in conformity to the law. Under that state of case, the election being null and void, all acts done in conformity to it would necessarily be nugatory. No turnpike tax could be collected under it, should the payer contest, and the bonds sold would not be worth the paper they were printed on. To right matters, which either resulted from an over zealousness on the part of County Judge Davison, or an ignorance of the law, and to enable the will of the majority to be carried out, we urged a re-submission of the question at the same time the question of issuing bonds was submitted, as it could be done without delay in the execution of the popular will. The election was ordered on the petition of 660 voters, and we shall vote and urge all other democrats to vote for free turnpikes in November, simply to right a wrong and to help carry out the demands of the majority previously expressed. It is not the fault of the voters that the election is void and they should not suffer because of the blunder of an official.

The question as to which party carried the free turnpike issue, is one that can be settled only by surmise. Mr. A. C. Carman says the Bryan democrats voted for free turnpikes to a man and as he is of sufficient anagosity for the republicans to nominate for representative they ought to take his word. Certain it is that if all who voted for Bryan voted for free pikes, they and they alone are entitled to whatever of credit or discredit there is in the matter. It is also very certain that the leaders told the ignorant whites and the colored voters not to try to vote on the question for fear of spoiling their ballots, and when you take away the ignorant white and colored republicans what is left of the republican party in this county?

It matters not, however, to whom the credit is due for carrying free turnpikes. Let the republicans have it if they want to as they also have whether they want it or not the odium of getting the matter in such a muddle that the democrats had to come to the rescue and get it into legal shape. Democrats will vote both for free turnpikes and the bond issue at the coming election and thus settle the matter.

D. N. COMINGORE was appointed collector of internal revenue for the Sixth district Saturday and now Auditor Stone's son will take his place as commissioner of insurance, by appointment from his father. A younger son has been drawing the pay of deputy commissioner, which office the public thought was held by Tutt Burnam, of Madison, until a correspondent made the discovery the other day. Mr. Stone evidently believes that public office is a private snap and that all the offices should be filled by Stones, if possible.

JOHN R. OWENS' name now ornaments the head of the Knox County News columns. He has enlarged the paper and improved it in many respects. That he is a man of unusual anagosity and general understanding in the neighborhood, witness the following from his first issue: Editor Walton, of the Stanford JOURNAL, has a nose for news and a brain to put it in readable form. His is the best and most widely read paper in Kentucky, outside of the city dailies.

COUNTY JUDGE BULLOCK went to the office of Editor Sam Roberts, of the Lexington Leader, and gave him a severe cursing for the strictures he had made of the appointment of election officers. The dispatch does not recite that Mr. Roberts did anything but take it. A man who won't defend himself especially in his own castle, can not expect much sympathy from the public.

THE court of appeals has decided that what is sauce for the goose is sauce for the gander. Leastwise it says that the Negro has the same claim for damages if disorderly white people are admitted in the coaches set apart for him as the white people have if their cars are invaded by Negroes. This is but simple justice, but unfortunately law and justice are not always synonymous terms.

After trying to palm itself off as a paper without politics, the Liberty Tribune at last sends up the republican flag. Most of us knew all the time that it was a "rad."

At Glasgow fully 10,000 people heard Hon. William Jennings Bryan Saturday and for two hours he held them spell-bound with his earnest and impassioned eloquence. No other defeated candidate was ever shown the courtesy and attention that is everywhere given Mr. Bryan and no other man ever drew the crowds that he draws and holds from start to finish. There must be something in such a man, no matter how much the gold bugs deride him. At Lebanon yesterday it was the same story of a large audience, enthusiastic with delight, and it will be the same at all the gentleman's appointments in Kentucky. Statesman or not, he is certainly very near the popular heart and seems greater in defeat than McKinley does in triumph.

REPUBLICAN and other liars tried to keep the people away from Bryan by reporting that he charged $1 for admission, but it didn't work. No such crowds ever heard an orator in Kentucky as are listening to the man from Nebraska. Bynum and Patterson read the reports and grow green with envy.

POLITICS

The registration at Harrodsburg shows a republican majority of 97.

Sixteen acres of people tried to hear William Jennings Bryan speak at the Nashville Exposition.

The republicans of Boyle, nominated J. Harvey Minor for representative and the populists named W. T. Harmon. The democrats will not have a candidate.

The total number of Negroes registered in Louisville is 9,526 and it is believed this is largely above the number entitled to and an investigation will be made.

The pay of the minister to Guatemala is $10,000 a year with $3,000 perquisites. So Dr. Hunter will be able to keep the wolf from the door and lay up some for a rainy day.

Over 5,000 people got to Glasgow before 9 o'clock to hear William Jennings Bryan speak Saturday afternoon and yet some people affect to think Bryan and the cause he espouses are dead.

Pickpockets got in their work at Glasgow while Mr. Bryan was speaking and a number of people lost from $50 to $150. Some republicans and bootleggers will no doubt be mean enough to say that Mr. Bryan and the scoundrels are in cahoot.

The total registration for the three days in Louisville for the 1897 election amounted to 46,897, or 186 more than the phenomenally heavy registration of last year. The democratic plurality for the three days was 6,757 against a republican plurality last year of 1,768.

This choice extract is from the Courier-Journal, which says it never calls names. It was provoked by the continued charge that the paper had sold out to Hanna: "The man who without warrant or evidence arraigns another's integrity, thereby proclaims himself not merely a clumsy blackguard and a thief at heart, but also an incestuous beast sprung from a liaison between a blackleg and a courtesan and proud of his origin."

Hurrah for Judge Morrow! He had to fight the Hunter faction, other liars and the devil, but he got there in great shape, his majority over Judge Denton being 600 or more. It is a great victory for him and Gov. Bradley. Judge Stout was recommended for Commonwealth's attorney.

Additional Local.

DON'T fail to attend James Rainbo's sale near Maywood Wednesday.

WILLIAM FIELDS sold to John B. Chamberlain, of Danville, 100,000 feet of poplar lumber.

GREEN hats are the latest. The Prince of Wales has set the fashion and New York dudes are affecting them largely.

1,313.—Ticket No. 1,313 drew the music box given away by Tanner Bros., the McKinney merchants, and the holder will please come forward and get his prize.

THE way people were rolling, riding and walking into Lebanon yesterday to hear Bryan was a caution. The Greensburg branch brought in 10 full coaches. No. 26 had 60 passengers for that point, 23 had two extra and 24 had three extra coaches, while all the country round about was on hand. Gov. Knott introduced the speaker in his inimitable way.

THE only thing done in the county court yesterday was the admission of Ch. Jeswine's will to probate.

LOST.—Green purse, Saturday night between H. J. McRoberts' and the Myers House. Finder please return to Miss Nettie Wray, as it is very valuable to her because of its associations.

YESTERDAY before the rain was about as mean a day as ever a court crowd spent. The wind blew great clouds of dust and it was almost impossible to keep one's eyes open on the street.

THE Stanford and Turnersville Christian Endeavor Societies will jointly hold a meeting at the Christian church here Sunday night, 24th, to which everybody is invited. An interesting program has been arranged.

THERE are only about 600 Negroes who pay taxes in Lincoln county and nearly 1,000 vote annually. The democrats should look into this matter and find where the other 400 come from. It is hard to guess a Negro's age and no doubt several hundred vote before they are 21.

A. A. BASTIN told us yesterday that 21 of his name, who voted the republican ticket last year, will vote the democratic ticket in November, a change of 42 votes. He figures that if the same people and no more vote in the clerk's race as before Thompson Cooper will be elected by 35.

SPARKS from a freight engine set fire to dry grass on the farm of Elder A. C. Newland, in the East End, Sunday and some 10 or a dozen acres were burned over. A stack of hay and 100 or so panels of fence were on the land and were consumed. It took hard fighting to put the fire out before the barn was reached.

SLIGHT showers fell yesterday, but hardly sufficient to lay the dust. It was the first drop that had fallen in seven weeks. When it rained before not even the oldest inhabitant can recall, because he didn't put it down. Fair, cooler, the signal service predicts for to-morrow, after having promised more showers for last night.

WE are told that an irresponsible individual asserted to a crowd of Negroes at a dark lantern seance at Hustonville that if the democratic ticket was elected the turnpikes already free would be changed to toll roads again and the tolls doubled. He and others of his ilk devoted most of their speeches to Messrs. Owens and Cooper, thereby proving what we said in our last issue that they have given up the fight for all their ticket except for sheriff and county clerk.

SPEAKING.—After Hon. R. C. Warren had concluded a fine speech for the democratic ticket, and warmed many up to their duty in the coming election, Mr. P. M. McRoberts, in a neat little speech, introduced ex-Chief Justice W. H. Holt, who spoke in behalf of the republican ticket. The judge is a good speaker, but his arguments are of the cut and dried order. When you hear one republican speech you hear them all, and it is a waste of time to listen to a second. The judge, however, does not deal in personalities, but makes a clean and gentlemanly argument for sound money and a high protective tariff. He appealed to the republicans to stick to the old ship and vote for Bailey and the entire ticket.

When he concluded Geo. T. Farris made a short address, announcing his candidacy for State Senator and challenging Mr. King for a joint canvass. Mr. King responded but failed to say if he would accept the challenge. Then came Capt. Wm. Herndon, who told of his nomination for circuit judge, adding that he was sure that for the next six years he would occupy the bench, on which he then stood. The captain is mistaken. He'll chew the rag for six years, that's what we are going to make him do. Hon. G. G. Gilbert was not present.

HAS HE CHANGED?—Most of our Lincoln county readers recollect the attempted assault of a Negro tramp named Billy Ackerson on the young daughter of Samuel Upthegrove near South Fork some three years ago and the subsequent hanging of the brute. Well, in those days John M. Johnson, republican nominee for circuit clerk, was a democrat from awayback and a Negro hater, the like of whom was seldom seen. He joined the posse in search of Ackerson, but then what? He gave Mr. Upthegrove a pistol and advised him to kill the fiend on sight and turning to the crowd of men in pursuit, we are told, remarked: "If I had my way I would sweep the Negroes off of the face of the earth." In his indignation he declared he could not give a Negro justice under any circumstances and said many other things which went to prove his hatred for the colored brother. Whether he has experienced a change of heart we do not know, but if he has not it must go monstrous hard for him to mingle with the Sons of Ham as he has been doing of late. But then Mr. J. is a versatile fellow and can no doubt change his affections as easily as he did his politics. By the way John S. Lee, of South Fork, is our authority for the above and if any additional proof is wanted concerning his remarks about the Negroes it can be had and had quickly.

SINCE we printed the extra page for this issue, the Secretary of State has sent out the official sample ballot, which gives the "National" democrats fourth place and changes the position of some of the candidates, but the one we print is good enough for all practical purposes. Mark under the rooster and that takes in all the democratic candidates.

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL publishes this week cuts of the democratic nominees in Lincoln for county offices and a handsomer set of men would be hard to find. If they are not speeders they certainly betray their looks. Mr. Harvey Helm, the candidate for county attorney, has the appearance of a clergyman—and one of those regular old-time shouting Methodists at that.—Nicholasville Journal.

AN OUTRAGE.—When a man takes the oath of office he swears to protect the interests of the State and county, not those of the political party to which he may have always belonged or may have sought for revenue only. The county judge and magistrates, who compose the fiscal court of the county, ought to be men of scrupulous honesty with a full regard for their oaths, but it would appear from certain action of the court that they are not. When the question of electing a poor-house keeper came up Friday, there appeared three bidders, the present incumbent, J. T. Chadwick, a republican, who offered to keep the paupers a year at $48 for adults and $23 for children; Squire Larkin Wells bid $38 for adults and $18 for children; and Rev. M. P. Morgan $40 and $19 respectively, agreeing also to preach for the paupers, hold prayer meeting and Sunday school. The latter's bid being rejected, the vote came between Chadwick and Wells, when the two democrats, John Bailey and John W. Walter, voted of course for the lowest bidder, Mr. Wells: the two republicans, John Edmiston and John A. Singleton, throwing their votes to a much higher bidder for no other known reason than that the bidder is of their politics. This made the vote a tie and that lightning change political artist alias Judge Dawson, after deciding to reserve his decision till Thursday, screwed his courage up to the sticking point after the crowd had departed and voted for Chadwick, doubtless to prove to his new found friends that oaths and nothing else stood in the way of his determination to stand by them through evil and good report, even if it takes every cent out of the county treasury. Figuring on the average population of the poor-house the little transaction will cost the people of Lincoln about $600 extra for four years and is as consciousness a proceeding as ever public officials were guilty of. Two of these men are candidates for re-election, Dawson and Singleton, and what the voters will do them for their duplicity will be a plenty, for they both deserve the condemnation that they are receiving for making a political question out of one affecting solely the money of the people.

By the Rev. Morgan's bid, which is the best all things considered, the county would have saved $480. It is claimed that Wells' bid was for "buncombe," which he stoutly denies. It must be remembered that in addition to sums named the poor-house keeper gets use of an 100-acre farm free. In Gardard county the paupers are kept for the use of the farm only.

Squire Larkin Wells says that to prove his bid was made in good faith he is not only ready but anxious to take the paupers at his bid. The man who says after this that he didn't mean business is a liar and the truth is not in him.

Mr. Chadwick has doubtless made a good keeper of the poor-house, and so far as we know there is no complaint against him. But Squire Wells is fully as capable of doing so as he is and is just as responsible we presume. The question of politics should have cut no figure in the matter, but since it has we propose to lay it on Macduff and damned be he who first cries "hold enough."

REPORT OF THE CONDITION OF
THE NATIONAL BANK OF HUSTONVILLE
AT HUSTONVILLE,
In the State of Kentucky, at the close of business
Oct 5, 1897.
RESOURCES.
Loans and discounts.....	$100,958 48
Overdrafts, secured and unsecured.....	2,908 31
U. S. Bonds to secure circulation.....	12,500 00
Banking House, furniture and fixtures.....	1,000 00
Due from National Banks, not Reserve Agents.....	1,110 99
Due from State Banks and Bankers.....	5,152 53
Due from approved reserve agents.....	19,944 27
Checks and other cash items.....	58 06
Notes of other National Banks.....	1,372 00
Fractional paper currency, nickels and cents.....	4 59
Lawful Money Reserve in Bank, viz:
Specie.....	11,140 00
Redemption fund with U. S. Treasurer 5 per cent. of circulation.....	562 50
Total.....	$156,712 09
LIABILITIES.
Capital stock paid in.....	$50,000 00
Surplus fund.....	25,000 00
Undivided profits, less expenses and taxes paid.....	1,501 93
National Bank notes outstanding.....	19,850 00
Due to other National Banks.....	633 08
Due to State Banks and Bankers.....
Fund to pay taxes.....	394 98
Individual deposits subject to check.....	65,422 10
Total.....	$156,712 09
I, Edward Alcorn, President of the above named Bank, do solemnly swear that the above statement is true to the best of my knowledge and belief.
EDWARD ALCON, President.
Subscribed and sworn to before me this 11th day of Oct., 1897. Geo. W. HUNN, N. P. L. CL.
J. T. ROSE, T. J. ROBINSON, C. E. REYNOLDS, } Directors.

Don't Delay!

Don't delay making your selections from our stock of Clothing of all descriptions, Hats, Boots, Shoes, Carpets, Blankets, Comforts, Underwear, Hosiery, Handkerchiefs, Dress Goods, Capes And Jackets.

We have Bargains in each and every department, up stairs and down stairs, are items to interest those who are interested.

CLOTHING.

Our Clothing stock is the most complete one ever brought to this town. Sizes for the smallest boy to the largest man. Boys' Suits at 75c to $5; Men's Suits at $2.50 to $40.

HATS.

A most complete line. Prices from 25c to $6. Be sure you examine our "Klondike" Hat. It's a beauty.

BOOTS!

Boys' Boots at 90c to $2 Men's Boots at $1 to $5. We have them all styles and qualities.

Capes And Jackets.

We have received a big line of Fall Capes and Jackets. The styles and quality are better than ever. Capes for Ladies at $1.25 to $10. Jackets for Children and Misses at $1.50 to $7.

DRESS GOODS!

Colored Dress Goods at 10c yard to 50c. Black Dress Goods in all qualities and widths. A big line. Outings, 5c per yard. Flannels and Flanneletts in large variety. Blankets at 75c pair. Comforts at 50c each. Every thing else will be sold proportionately low. Now is your time to save some money and the Louisville Store is the place.

THE LOUISVILLE STORE.

A. URBANSKY & CO., PROPRIETORS.

T. D. RANEY, MANAGER.

Paris, Carlisle, Mt. Sterling, Bardonia, Lawrenceburg, Cynthiana, Versailles, Eminence, Georgetown, Elizabethtown, Frankfort, and Mauckport, Ind.

Clothing, Hats, Gents' Furnishing Goods

Shoes, Heavy Boots,

Rubber Coats, McIntoshes, Trunks and Valises. Prices Low. Terms Cash.

H. J. McROBERTS.

TRUSSES!

Latest and most approved Styles and Designs. Every Instrument Guaranteed. A Complete Line of

Fountain and Household Syringes, Hot Water and Ice Bags,

And Surgical Supplies a Specialty. We guarantee Prices and Quality.

CRAIG & HOCKER.

A Word To You.

Having considered the question from almost every standpoint, we have decided to adopt

THE CASH SYSTEM,

Beginning July 1, 1897, believing that it will be more satisfactory to both buyer and seller. No bad debts will accumulate, consequently we can sell goods cheaper. It will take much less capital, our expenses will be less and there is every reason why the cash system will prove satisfactory. We only ask you to try it awhile and if you find it is not to your advantage, we will not kick on your buying from merchants who sell on credit. We are satisfied we can sell you goods from 10 to 25 per cent. cheaper than the credit men and this should certainly be an inducement to you. Very truly,

FARRIS & HARDIN.

High Locust Herd Reg. Poland Chinas.

Headed by U. S. MODEL, NO. 38,353.

Son of Kiever's Model, No. 29,719, the greatest breeding hog living, and HUNDLEY'S CLAUDE, No. 12,691, son of the World's Columbian Champion, Claude, No. 11,067. Fine, toppy young hogs ready for service. A few show gilts old enough to breed, and bred sows a specialty, for sale. This stock is strictly first-class in every respect, with up-to-date pedigrees. Prices reasonable and satisfaction guaranteed. Write your wants or come and see my hogs. A few fresh Jersey Cows for sale. They are good ones. Also Mammoth Pekin Duck Eggs, $1 for 13. A. E. HUNDLEY, Box 195, Danville, Ky.

H. C. RUPLEY,

THE MERCHANT TAILOR

Is Receiving his

FALL + AND + WINTER + GOODS.

Goods Warranted and a Perfect Fit Guaranteed. Give him a Call.

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL

STANFORD, KY., OCTOBER 12, 1897

W. P. WALTON.

DANVILLE.—Thirty-five years ago to-day, 8th, the battle of Perryville was fought, and Judge Prewitt is reminded that the weather is about the same, water about as scarce, but every thing else different.—The grass in the fields where the farms of Weisiger, McRoberts and Berry join, caught fire and burned over a large space. Mr. McRoberts lost 275 panels of fence, and damage was also done on the other farms.—H. C. Bright has established a branch of the Crescent Buggy Co. at Somerset.—Dr. Fayette Dunlap and wife will leave Danville about the first of November to take up their residence in Bloomington, Ill. Mrs. Dunlap sold home and one of the most prosperous cities in the west.—Many persons were present at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Harding last evening, to hear Dr. McGregor read from MacLaren and Barrie, and all were delighted with the features of the occasion. Geo. W. Doneghy read some of his excellent verses and Miss Lillie Roberts recited. A nice sum was raised for the Baptist church.—Farris & Whitley bought of an Ohio feeder 43 good 912-lb cattle at 4c.—Advocate.

Old People.

Old people who require medicine to regulate the bowels and kidneys will find the true remedy in Electric Bitters. This medicine does not stimulate and contains no whiskey nor other intoxicant, but acts as a tonic alternative. It acts mildly on the stomach and bowels, adding strength and giving tone to the organs, thereby aiding Nature in the performance of the functions. Electric Bitters is an excellent aperient and cathartic. Old people find it just exactly what they need. Price fifty cents and $1.00 per bottle at W. B. McRoberts' Drug Store.

Bucklin's Arnica Salve.

The best salve in the world for cuts, bruises, sores, ulcers, salt rheum, fever sores, tetter, chapped hands, chilblains, corns and all skin eruptions. It positively cures piles or no pay required. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction or money refunded. Price 25 cents per box. For sale by W. B. McRoberts, Druggist.

Something to Depend on

Mr. James Jones, of the drug firm of Jones & Son-Cowden, Ill., in speaking of Dr. King's New Discovery, says that last winter his wife was attacked with La Grippe, and her case grew so serious that physicians at Cowden and Pana could do nothing for her. It seemed to develop into a heavy consumption. Having Dr. King's New Discovery in store, and selling lots of it, he took a bottle home and to the surprise of all she began to get better from first dose and half dozen bottles cured her sound and well. Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds is guaranteed to do this good work. Try it. Free trial bottles at W. B. McRoberts' Drug Store.

"My boy came home from school one day with his hand badly lacerated and bleeding and suffering great pain," says Mr. E. J. Schall, with Meyer Bros. Drug Co., St. Louis, Mo. "I dressed the wound and applied Chamberlain's Pain Balm freely. All pain ceased and in a remarkably short time it healed without leaving a scar. For wounds, sprains, swellings and rheumatism I know of no medicine or prescription equal to it. I consider it a household necessity." The 25 and 50c sizes for sale by Craig & Hocker.

IT SAVES CROUPI CHILDREN.

SEAVIEW, VA.—We have a splendid sale on Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and our customers coming from far and near, speak of it in the highest terms. Many have said that their children would have died of croup if Chamberlain's Cough Remedy had not been given.—Kellum & Durrett. The 25 and 50c sizes for sale by Craig & Hocker.

A CURE FOR BILIOUS COLIC.

RESOURCE, SEVEN CO., GA.—I have been subject to attacks of bilious colic for several years. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is the only sure relief. It acts like a charm. One dose of it gives relief whenever all other remedies fail.—G. D. Sharp. For sale by Craig & Hocker, Stanford.

Peter Wells and Vienna Bailey, who were lovers for 60 years and who were married at Anderson, Ind., two weeks ago, have each applied for divorce.

Farmers Bank & Trust Co.

OF STANFORD, KY.

Paid up Capital, $200,000 00
Surplus, 17,003 00

By provisions of its charter, depositors are fully protected as are depositors in National Banks, its shareholders being held individually liable to the extent of the amount of stock therein at the par value thereof, in addition to the amount invested in such shares. It may act as executor, administrator, trustee, etc., as fully as an individual. Tendering our thanks to those who have patronized their business to say, we trust they will continue to do so, and we offer as a guarantee for prompt attention to same our 20 years' experience in banking and as liberal accommodations as are consistent with sound banking.

DIRECTORS.

J. J. Williams, M. Vernon;
W. H. Cummins, Prochessville;
J. S. Owsley, Sr., J. B. Owsley,
William Gooch, S. H. Shanks,
J. C. Embury, S. F. Cash,
J. E. Lynn, A. W. Carpenter,
J. N. McNeel.

OFFICERS.

S. H. Shanks, President;
J. B. Owsley, Cashier;
W. M. Bright, Teller

FIRST NATIONAL BANK

OF STANFORD, KY.

Capital Stock $100,000. Surplus, $15,750

Attention of the public is called to the fact that this is the only National Bank in Stanford. Under the provisions of the National Bank Act depositors are secured not only by the capital stock, but by the stockholders' liability for an amount equal in the stock, so that depositors of this institution are secured by a fund of $209,000. Five sworn statements of the condition of the Bank are made each year to the United States Government and its assets are examined at stated times by government agents, thus securing additional and perfect safety to depositors.

This institution originally established as the Deposit Bank of Stanford in 1858, then reorganized as the National Bank of Stanford in 1860 and again reorganized as the First National Bank of Stanford in 1862, has had practically an uninterrupted existence for 35 years. It is better supplied now with facilities for transacting business promptly and liberally than ever before. The loan and discount department, accounts of individuals, fiduciaries, firms and individuals solicited.

DIRECTORS.

F. Reid, Lincoln Co.; J. W. Hayden, Stanford;
S. T. Harris, J. H. Baughman,
J. S. Hocker, J. C. Hill,
K. L. Tanner, McKinney, W. A. Tribble,
J. H. Collier, Crab Orchard; M. J. Miller, Mt. Vernon,
M. D. Elmore, Stanford.

OFFICERS.

J. S. Hocker, President; J. J. McRoberts Cashier
A. A. McKinney, Assistant Cashier.

PRETTY TABLE LAMP.

How to Obtain a Useful and Ornamental Piece of Art.

The illustration shows the design for a table lamp that can be made by most any woman who is handy with tools. The materials which will be required to make it are seemingly the least worthy, and an old box, some burlaps or bagging such as furniture comes packed in, a few thin sheets of stove-pipe iron and some nails and paint.

In the first place, obtain a box at a grocery store such as canned goods are packed in, carefully break it apart, taking care not to split any of the thin boards. Of these boards make a box eight inches square and twelve inches high; the wood used for the top and bottom should be thicker than that of which the sides are made, and in the top cut a round hole, large enough to admit a metal lamp fount. A rim around the top edge of the fount will, if the hole is made the right size, prevent it from falling into the box.

All over the top and sides of the box fasten ordinary burlaps with liquid glue, and when it is thoroughly dry give the bagging a few successive coats of light olive green paint. Sand-paper the burlaps before applying the last coat, so an even and smooth surface may be obtained.

Bind the edges of the box with strips of sheet iron, allowing about three-quarters of an inch of metal to show on a side. Fasten the iron on with large oval-headed brass upholsterers' tacks, driven at equal distances apart.

On a sheet of paper draw the pattern shown on one side of the box and cut pieces from the thin iron to work out the pattern on each side. Tack these pieces on with good-sized oval-headed iron carpet tacks and then give all the metal work a coat or two of ivory black paint, thinned with japan drier.

At a hardware store purchase four clawfeet and screw one fast under each corner. They will probably be of brass, but when painted black will appear as of iron.

HOMEMADE TABLE LAMP.

A good central-draft lamp fount and burner can be purchased at a lamp store, with them a canopy shade frame can be purchased, over which a pretty shade can be made of silk paper or other light material that will shed a pleasant light, and if arranged as shown in the illustration a satisfactory result will be obtained.

If a central-draft burner and fount is used it will be necessary to have a few holes through the bottom of the box to allow a vent for the air, otherwise it would cause the light to be dim or the wick to smoke.—C. Harry Adams, in Chicago Record.

HINTS ON CANNING.

Mrs. Rorer Gives Timely Directions for Putting Up Fruit.

In the Ladies' Home Journal Mrs. S. T. Rorer writes on "Canning and Preserving." At the outset of her lesson she emphasizes the value of securing perfectly sound and fresh fruits, and the necessity of getting the cans and canning appliances in readiness in advance. "To prevent breaking when filling the jars," Mrs. Rorer advises that they be slipped "sidewise into a kettle of hot water, rolling them so that every part may be quickly and uniformly heated. Fold a damp towel, place it in the bottom of a pudding pan, then near the preserving kettle; stand a jar on the towel, and if the fruit is small adjust the funnel; fill quickly to overflowing. Run a heated silver knife around the inside of the jar, to break any air bubbles that may have been caught with the fruit, and adjust the rubber, then lift the lid from the hot water and place it at once. If large fruit fill with a wooden spoon, arranging the fruit so that the weight of one piece will not destroy the shape of another. Fill to overflowing with the liquid, water or sirup, and fasten tightly. After sealing stand the jars out of a draft over night. The glass by that time will have contracted, and the lids will, in consequence, be loose. Wipe each jar carefully and give the top an extra turn. Put away in a cool, not a cold, dark closet. At the end of a week examine each jar carefully, without shaking or disturbing more than necessary. If you find the lids slightly indented, the contents free from air bubbles or froth, and the liquid settled, you may rest assured 'they will keep.' If you do not find it so, open the jars to prevent bursting. Reheat the fruit, being careful to bring it to a boiling point, and re-can."

Polish for the Furniture.

A little turpentine and oil applied to furniture with a flannel cloth, the furniture then thoroughly rubbed, will give it a bright, clean appearance. If your rosewood refuses to polish have your furniture man repolish it for you. He will rub it down with sandpaper, and varnish it, so it will last for six years.—Ladies' Home Journal.

Crashed Into an Iceberg.

It is a serious matter when a ship is obliged to seek collision with the lesser of two evils. The author of "Greenland Icefields" says that he was once on board a steamer in the mouth of the strait of Belle Isle where there were innumerable vast, beautiful icebergs, surrounded by a dense fog. The chance of encountering them, however, seemed so slight that the boat continued its course, though at slackened speed. He adds:

Suddenly a large spot in the mist ahead of the ship lighted up, as if we were coming to a clear space. But to the experienced eyes of the mate and the ice pilot it was an ominous specter, for it was the ice blink of a huge berg which almost at that very instant emerged from the mist, towering hundreds of feet above us and stretching out many hundred feet on either side. It was too late to avoid it. Safety, if it could be secured at all, lay in taking the collision straight ahead, and accordingly the rudder was turned at the instant the wheel was reversed. The collision came all too soon. Great masses of ice fell upon the deck. The steamer reeled like a drunken man, but the passengers scarcely had time to secure an upright position again before all was quiet as death, while we anxiously watched the carpenter as he sounded the wells to see if there were a leak.

Meantime the huge berg gleamed down upon us from its serene height in the mist and revealed clearly the pointed sides of the great gash which had been made in it by the bow of our iron ship.

After a few minutes of breathless anxiety it was ascertained that, beyond the breaking of three or four iron plates of the ship high above the water line and the disabling of one anchor, no damage was done. Fortunately we had hit the iceberg where there was no projecting foot below the water. Otherwise it would surely have been a fatal collision for us.

It was thrilling indeed for us to reflect that we had sailed or steamed by a most circuitous route to encounter this particular berg and had hit it at almost the only safe point which it presented for attack.

Last Fight in the Coliseum.

In a fragment of a medieval diary, the authorship of which is generally attributed to Ludovico Bonconte Mondeschi da Orvieto, there is a description of a great bullfight given in the Coliseum on the 3d day of September, 1332. It appears that the arena was still free from any accumulation of soil, although the marble seats and the marble decorations had already been taken away. The seats were replaced, therefore, with red cloth. Mondeschi's account of this last vision of athletic sports, of this ephemeral revival of classic games, the last of which had taken place 800 years before, is so graphic and so full of details characteristic of the age that it may please the reader to know somewhat of them.

The seats had been divided into four sections. The first section was occupied by the noble ladies of the Pontefice and Orsini, by those of Trastevere, led by Tacopella de Vico, and by those of the Monti and Campitelli, led by two of the Colonnas. The noblemen sat in the next compartment. Women and men of the middle and lower classes occupied the third and fourth sections. The brave young men, the pick of the Roman and Italian aristocracy, who were to confront the wild bulls were remarkable for the variety of the colors they wore and for the mottoes engraved on their helmets. The gallant band of youths was not very successful on that day. When the fight came to an end for want of more champions, 18 of them were lying dead in the arena and 11 were dangerously wounded, while only 11 bulls had been killed. The dead heroes were carried off in triumphal procession to St. John of Lateran, followed by the whole crowd of spectators.—Atlantic Monthly.

What Eyes Cost.

If our civilization has not entirely spoiled the taste of the noble savage, how he would gloat over a necklace of artificial eyes, which, as trophies, would far surpass in interest the now out of date scalp. All his relatives and wives would scarce be too big a price to offer for such a treasure, such a perfect museum of expression, combining educational and utilitarian benefits at one and the same time. It would bestow pleasure on the savage and profit on the seller, who in this newly developed taste of the former would find an admirable way of disposing of surplus stock.

To return to our subject, a peculiarity about the eyes of apes persons is that they fade at the edges of the iris, or, rather, that the extreme edges seem to fall away, leaving a circle of white between the iris and its edge. This is known as an arcus eye. It is most curious looking. I saw an artificial arcus that had just been made to order for a very old lady.

The price of what is termed a "hospital eye"—that is, one supplied to patients at hospitals—$10s. 6d., and the best eye made costs only 2 guineas, a small amount, taking into consideration the skill and time expended upon it.

This firm supplies the Royal Ophthalmic and several other London hospitals with artificial eyes.

"Thirty years ago," I was told, "the cheapest eye obtainable cost not less than 2 guineas, and for the best as much as 5 guineas was demanded."—New Illustrated Magazine.

A Delicate Accommodation.

"Did you say that this is to be a wedding present?" asked the salesman. "No, I didn't. And I don't see that it makes any difference to you."

"Not the slightest," was the reply. "I merely thought you might like to have us take off this price mark and paste on another with a higher figure on it."—Washington Star.

THOROUGHbred HOGS.

Why They Should Be Given a Place on Every Farm.

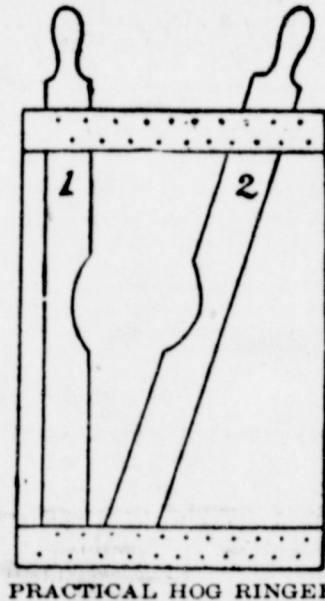

At an Iowa farmers' institute in reply to the question: Would you have a thoroughbred herd of hogs on every farm? a prominent hog-raiser said:

If my plan could prevail I would have nothing but pure bred hogs in this country. I do not mean by that that every herd should be registered. That would be an expensive uselessness, but I do mean that all stock should be traceable to recorded ancestry. Then let the registered herds be kept up to the highest standard of excellence to supply a male head for each of these pork herds. The professional breeder would then do a flourishing business and the farmer would not be looking around for the best hog in Christendom for ten dollars. He would demand something better than that and would be reaping the profit which he justly deserves from feeding his farm produce to a class of hogs that would net a snug profit and command a premium on any market, whether high or low, and at the same time have a bunch of hogs that he could take infinite satisfaction in "hanging on the fence" to look at and to show his neighbor because they always call forth favorable comment and admiration, which would be an incentive for something a little better if possible for the next crop. I say that until the thoroughbred hog shall be given a place on every farm his true mission is not fulfilled, and further that the mission of the professional breeder if he be honest and unselfish and sees the whole thoroughbred scheme in its proper light is not fulfilled until such is the case. If every farmer could see this plan from the proper standpoint and could comprehend the advantages accruing from its consummation three years at most would accomplish the work. But though firm in the faith as I am I have grave doubts if it is ever accomplished. There is too great a diversity in human nature, too wide a range of disposition, too many scrub men, too much difference, to ever expect to see all the farmers stand on a level in any branch of industry. However, the cause is advancing, and one fact is well established, that when a man once gets a taste of thoroughbred blood, like the bulldog, he never lets loose except to get a better hold.

FOR RINGING HOGS.

Clever Contrivance Which Is Not Protected by Patents.

This is the way we catch hogs for ringing. Take an ordinary shipping crate for hogs, take off cleats at both ends, on one end nail at four corners of the crate four cleats two inches by three inches. Over these crosswise at top and bottom of crate nail two two-inch by three-inch strips. Through these bore one-half inch holes, dodging three inches apart. Into this space insert two movable levers with holes in them opposite those in cleats. When finished the end of the crate will look like this:

PRACTICAL HOG RINGER.

Lever No. 1 and 2 are held in place by two bolts without burrs. This makes them adjustable to different-sized hogs. No. 2 is thrown back ready for the hog to put his head in. Set the "trap," we call it, at your pen door, with hogs inside, with one man or boy to chase one at a time into it and as the hog runs his head into the open trap catch him just behind the ears by moving lever No. 2 to an upright position quickly. When you have your hog in the trap you can ring him at your leisure. We have used this kind of a device for ten years. There is no patent on it.—E. D. Hale, in National Stockman.

How to Cool Off a Pig.

A great many breeders upon having a hog or pig over-heated, or very warm, attempt to reduce the temperature by dashing a bucket of cold water over it. Very often the result is a dead pig in a very short time. The proper way to cool off a pig just received in a crate or one that is overheated, is to let it lie still and commence pouring water gradually on its nose, continuing for the space of two minutes on the nose, and up to the top of the head. Then when the head is thoroughly cooled, proceed backward gradually, not pouring too rapidly at first, till you have reached the tail. In this way the hog will be cooled off without danger of any bad effects from the overheating.—Rural World.

The Fancy Farmer's Mission.

"Fancy farmers," or the owners of "fancy" stock, are frequently ridiculed, but it is due to their willingness to improve stock and their persistency in adhering to their belief in something better than scrubs that the farmer is benefited. The man of capital goes on with his improvement of stock and may suffer loss at first, but after awhile he begins to make profits, the farmers begin lifted up with him, as the farm on which improved breeds are specialties becomes a fountain source from which superior animals are distributed in all directions.

One Implied the Other. "I am poor but honest," he began, when the other interrupted him. "You can leave off half of that," he said. "Do you mean that I am not honest?" "No I mean that you are poor."—N. Y. Journal.

Still They Are One. "A man and a woman," remarked the observer of men and things, "are quite likely to look at a thing from opposite points of view; a man will see nothing but the outlay, where a woman has no eyes for anything but the layout."—Detroit Journal.

A General Break. Mrs. Hoyle—What was all that noise at your house this morning? Mrs. Doyle—The servant broke some of the china and then my husband broke one of the commandments.—N. Y. Truth.

Incomprehensible. "There's another piece in the paper about a fellow gettin' drowned while bathin'," said Soiled Simpson to Dirty Dickson. "Why will people run such awful risks?" asked Mr. Dickson.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Tennyson Up to Date. Bikes, bikes, bikes! They are everywhere! 'Tis plain The day when 'twas safe to cross the street Will never come back again!—Town Topics.

LOST FOR GOOD.

"Miss Specie has lost her good name." "How? What did she do?" "Got married."—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Why She Does Not Bathe. She does not fear to risk her life This dashing summer girl, She only stays out of the surf To keep her hair in curl. —Brooklyn Life.

Mr. Enpee's Idea. Wyld—I heard of a man the other day who said his married life had contained nothing but happiness. Enpee—He must have parted from his wife at the altar.—Town Topics.

Poor Fellow. Reporter—What shall I say of this man who was found shut up in a folding bed? City Editor—Say that he was gathered into the fold.—N. Y. World.

A Reasonable Inference. Mrs. Gazzam (reading the newspaper)—Here's an article about "A Fatal Flirtation." Gazzam—They got married, did they?—Harlem Life.

Returning Prosperity. "Dr. Simpson has been complaining because the town has been so healthy." "Yes?" "And all last night he walked the floor with the neuralgia."—Chicago Record.

When War Was Declared. Molly—Jack called on me last night and stayed until 12 o'clock. Dolly—He told me this morning that it was very late before he could get away.—N. Y. Journal.

Blue - Grass Nurseries.

Full stocks of Fruit and Ornamental Trees Grape Vines, Small Fruits, Asparagus and every thing for Orchard, Lawn and Garden. We have no agents but sell direct to the planter, saving enormous commissions. Catalogue on application to H. F. HILLENMEYER, Lexington, Ky.

CONFEDERATE VETERAN.

NASHVILLE, TENN. OFFICIALLY REPRESENTS United Confederate Veterans, United Daughters of the Confederacy, The Sons, and other Organizations.

$1.00 a year. Two Samples, Four Two-Cent Stamps. S. A. CUNNINGHAM.

SPECIAL REDUCTION in Price with this Paper

Election on Question of Free Turnpikes.

Regular term Lincoln County Court held August 9th, 1897. I, Wm. L. Dawson Judge presiding, in the matter of free turnpikes and gravel roads in Lincoln County.

On motion of the applicants, W. A. Carson, J. T. Adams, Wm. Ellis and others, voters of Lincoln County heretofore directed to and received by the Judge of the Lincoln County Court, on the 12th, day of July 1897, the first day of the regular term of the Lincoln County Court, was submitted to the Judge of said Court on the 9th day of August, 1897, the first day of the August term of Lincoln County Court, and it appearing to the satisfaction of the Judge of said Court that a written application asking for a vote upon the proposition to have free turnpikes and gravel roads in Lincoln County, Ky., was heretofore to wit, on the 12th day of July, the first day of the July term of said Court, 1897, presented to and received by the Judge of said Court, and that said written application was signed by a number of voters of said County equal to more than 15 per cent of the legal voters of said County cast at the last preceding general election held in said County which was a general and regular election and it further appearing that the object and purpose of said petition and written application are to remove all doubts as to the validity of the election on free turnpikes and gravel roads in Lincoln County, and carry out the will of the people on free turnpikes in said County as expressed at the last November election, and to insure the sale of bonds issued for the purchase of the pikes in Lincoln County at a premium and not a loss, and the petitioners making said application having paid into Court, a sufficient amount of money to pay for this order and the expense of printing and advertising and other necessary expenses connected with the election prayed for, it is now therefore ordered that an election be held in Lincoln County, Ky. at the next regular election on the 2d day of November, 1897, more than 60 days intervening between the entering of this order and the day of the regular election, to take the sense of the qualified and legal voters of said County upon the proposition to have free turnpikes and gravel roads in Lincoln County and Thomas D. Newland, the Sheriff of Lincoln County, is hereby directed to open a poll at each and all of the precincts and voting places in said County of Lincoln, at the time heretofore designated for the purpose of taking the sense of the qualified voters of the County of Lincoln, on the proposition aforesaid, and for the reasons recited in the written application. The said Thomas D. Newland, Sheriff aforesaid, will have this order published in the INTERIOR JOURNAL, a newspaper published at Stanford, Ky., for at least 30 days prior to the election and will also advertise the same by printed hand bills posted in at least four conspicuous places in each voting precinct, for the same length of time and at court house door. The election for the purpose of aforesaid shall be held by the same officers who hold the regular November election and in all respects held in accordance with the provisions of the general election laws of this State.

The question, "Are you in favor of free turnpikes and gravel roads?" to be printed on the ballot as provided for in the general election law, section 1459, Kentucky statutes.

State of Kentucky, }
County of Lincoln. } Sct.

I, James F. Cummins, clerk of the Lincoln County Court, do hereby certify that the foregoing order is a true and correct copy of same, as appears on the records in my office.

Witness my hand this 13th day of August, 1897. Attest JAS. F. CUMMINS, Clerk Lincoln County Court.

In obedience to the foregoing order of the Lincoln County Court, which is made part of this notice, an election will be held at all the regular voting places in said county, for the purpose named in said order at the next regular election which will be held November 2, 1897, which election shall in all respects be held in accordance with the provisions of the general election laws of this State.

T. D. NEWLAND, Sheriff Lincoln County, Ky

Election on Bond Issue.

Special term Lincoln County Fiscal Court held August 9th, 1897. Hon. Wm. L. Dawson, Judge, presiding, with the following Justices of the Peace present, Jno. Edmiston, A. G. Faulkner and J. W. Walter.

A motion was made, seconded and carried, that an election be and the same is hereby called to be held at the next regular election in Lincoln County, which does not occur in sixty days from this date, to wit, on the 2d day of November, 1897, to ascertain whether or not the legal voters of Lincoln County are in favor of empowering and authorizing the Fiscal Court of said County, to issue and sell bonds from time to time within the constitutional limitations for the purpose of purchasing and maintaining the turnpike roads of Lincoln County, free of toll to the traveling public, said bonds to bear interest not exceeding six per cent, per annum payable semi-annually with coupons attached; to be in denominations of not less than $100 nor more than $1,000 to run not more than 30 years and to be redeemed within that time at the pleasure of the Court, and to be sold at not less than par value. The Sheriff of Lincoln County is directed to advertise said election and the object thereof for at least 30 days beforehand in the Interior Journal and Stanford Commercial, two newspapers published in Stanford, Ky., and also by printed hand-bills posted up, at not less than four public places in each voting precinct, of Lincoln County, and at the Court house door in Stanford, Ky. All legal voters of Lincoln County shall be privileged to vote at said election. The same officers that hold the regular election shall hold this election, which shall in all respects be held in accordance with the general election laws of this State, and at all the regular voting places of Lincoln County. The question: "Are you in favor of issuing bonds for the purchase and maintenance of the turnpike roads of this County free of toll to the traveling public," shall be printed on the ballots as provided by section 1459 of the Kentucky Statutes. The officers of the election are directed to certify the result thereof as required by law.

State of Kentucky, }
County of Lincoln. } Sct.

I, James F. Cummins, Clerk of the Lincoln County Court, do hereby certify that the foregoing order is a true and correct copy of same, as appears on the records in my office. Witness my hand this 13th, day of August, 1897. Attest JAS. F. CUMMINS, Clerk Lincoln County Court.

In obedience to the foregoing order of the Fiscal Court of Lincoln County, which is made part of this notice, an election will be held at all the regular voting places in said county, for the purpose named in said order, at the next regular election, which will be held November 2d, 1897, which election shall in all respects be held in accordance with the provisions of the general election laws of this State.

T. D. NEWLAND, Sheriff Lincoln County, Ky

Nat. Democratic Ticket.

For Clerk of the Court of Appeals,
J. R. Hindman, - -

CURRENT MISCELLANY.

The printers of the latter part of the sixteenth century began to recognize the fact that there was a sound in spoken English which was without a representative in the shape of an alphabetical sign or character, as the first sound in the word "wet." Prior to that time it had always been spelled "vet," the v having the long sound of u or of two u's together. In order to convey an idea of the new sound they began to spell such words as "wet," "weather," "web" with two u's, and as the u of that date had the form of v the three words above looked like this: "vvet," "vveather," "vveb." After awhile the typesetfounders recognized the fact that the double u had come to stay, so they joined the two u's together and made the character now so well known as the w. I have a book, says the writer, in which all three of the forms of the w occur. The first is the old double v (vv), the next is one in which the last stroke of the first v crosses the first stroke of the second, and the third is the common w which we use today.

Another modern letter is the letter j. This letter seems to have first come into common use in the time of the Commonwealth, though it is found occasionally in books printed prior to that time. It seems to have originated in a custom, which had come into fashion in the preceding century, of giving a "tail" to the last i of the Roman numerals, thus, viij for 8, xi for 12, a fashion which still lingers in physicians' prescriptions. The j, like the double u, was a needed letter, and when it came it came to stay.—Self Culture.

The Tame Fawn.

Although they do not appreciate confinement in a paddock, it is easy to tame a fawn, and it makes a delightful pet until it attains to years of indiscretion. A tame roe used to follow the children everywhere round the old castle of Dunrobin and even up the stairs and into the rooms. One of his little playfellow had been obliged to give up his room to a gentleman who had come to stay there, and the surprise of the guest was unbounded when the head and neck of a roe protruded through his half open door. "Dear me," he said, "game must be extremely plentiful in these parts!"

Yet just as a kitten would be the most delightful of pets except for its unfortunate habit of growing into a cat, so a roe, and especially a buck, becomes too much of a handful as a pet when it grows up. Its beautiful little horns are both sharp and dangerous, and a tame roebuck very nearly put an old woman off the road and into the Crinaneal by his obtrusive attentions. It meant no harm. It really expected to get a lump of rock salt, with which it had usually been rewarded for its caresses, but the old dame did not appreciate its uncanny approaches and narrowly escaped with her life.—Badminton Magazine.

Why the Sky Is Blue.

Did it ever strike you to inquire why the cloudless depths of the sky above us are so delicately blue? It isn't that the gas we call air is in itself blue.

As far as we know, it is quite transparent and absolutely colorless. No; the blue comes from reflected light. Air is never pure. You couldn't live in it if it were. Countless millions of tiny particles, chiefly of water, are always suspended in it, and these arrest the free passages of light. Each particle has a double reflection—one internal, the other external—and so the reflected

You will notice that the sky appears much bluer if you look straight up than if you look across toward the horizon. The reason is that in the first instance you are naturally looking through a much thinner layer of air than in the second.

If there were no air and consequently no watery vapor and nothing to interfere with the free passage of light, even at midday the sky above would look perfectly black and all the stars plainer than at present they do at midnight.—London Answers.

The Indomitable Gull.

You can no more disconnect thoughts of the open sea from the flight and cry of a gull than from the masts and cordage of a ship or the brown and gold branches of a seaweed and the long, purple fluted ribbons of seawrack. Restless explorers of all seas, found upon every island, inlet and reach of coast, always enterprising, energetic, fearless and full of eager vitality, this amphibious and indomitable bird might well be chosen for the heraldic symbol of Great Britain if we had not already appropriated the lion. The heart of a sea gull, which is not so large as an Orleans lark, must have in it all the heroism of Vasco da Gama, all the curiosity of Columbus, all the joyous buccaneering spirit of Raleigh and of Drake.—London Telegraph.

Mrs. Mahala Miller, aged 94, died at Nicholasville last week.

Webster's International Dictionary

Successor of the "Unabridged."

The One Great Standard Authority.
So writes Hon. D. J. Brewer,
Justice U. S. Supreme Court.

Standard
Of the U. S. Court Printing
Office, the U. S. Supreme Court, all the State Supreme Courts, and of nearly all the Schoolbooks.

Warmly Commended
by State Superintendents of Schools, College Treatments, and other Educators almost without number.

invaluable
In the household, and to every student, scholar, professional man, and selfimprover.

THE BEST FOR PRACTICAL USE.
It is easy to find the word wanted.
It is easy to ascertain the pronunciation.
It is easy to trace the growth of a word.
It is easy to learn what a word means.

The Raleigh News & Observer says:
"Our individual preferences were formerly for another dictionary, but a better acquaintance with the latter edition has at times, slight as it has led us to regard it as the most valuable, and to consider it as the standard as far as any one dictionary should be so accurate."

GET THE BEST.
Specimen pages sent on application to
G. & MERRILL CO., Publishers,
Springfield, Mass.

DRS. K. & K.

The Leading Specialists of America
20 YEARS IN OHIO.
250,000 Cured.

WE CURE STRICTURE

Thousands of young and middle-aged men are troubled with this disease—many unconsciously. They may have a smarting sensation, small, twisting stream, sharp itching, joints at times, slight discharge, difficulty in commencing, weak organs, emaciation, and all the symptoms of nervous debility—they have STRIC-TURE. Don't let doctors experiment on you, by catniss, stretching, or tearing you. This will not cure you, as it will return. Our NEW NICHOD TREAT-MENT absorbs the stricture tissue,
hence removes the stricture permanently.
No more returns. No pain, no suffering, no detention from business by our method. The sexual organs are strengthened. The nerves are invigorated, and the bliss of manhood returns.

WE CURE GLEET

Thousands of young and middle-aged men are having their sexual vigor and fertility continually sapped by this disease. They are frequently unconscious of the cause of these symptoms. General Weakness, Lumbago Discharges, Failing Manhood, Nervousness, Poor Memory, Irritability, at times Smarting Sensation, Syren Eyes, with dark circles, Weak Back, General Depression, Lack of Ambition, Varicocele, Shrunken Parts, etc. GLEET and STRICTURE may be the cause. Don't consult family doctors, as they have no experience in these special diseases—don't allow Quacks to experiment on you. Consult Specialists who have made a PRACTICE of Diseases of Men and Women. Our NEW METHOD TREATMENT will positively cure you. One thousand dollars for a case we accept for treatment and cure. Terms moderate for a cure.

CURES GUARANTEED

We treat and cure EMISSIONS,
VARICOCELE, GLEET, STRICTURE, IMPOTENCY, SECRET
DRAIN, UNNATURAL DISCHARGE,
EXHAUSTION, and BLADDER DISEASES.
CONSULTATION FREE.
If unable to call, write for
QUESTION BLANK for HOME TREATMENT.

DRS.
KENNEDY & KERGAN
122 W. FOURTH STREET,
CINCINNATI, O.

"BIG 4."

ROUTE.

The Best Line to and From

TOLEDO AND DETROIT

All Points in Michigan.

CHICAGO.

"White City Special."
Best Terminal Station.

ST. LOUIS.

Avoiding the Tunnel

BOSTON.

Wagner Sleeping Cars.

NEW YORK.

Buffet Parlor Cars, Wagner Sleeping Cars, Private Consistent Cars, Elegant Coaches and Dining Cars.

Be sure your tickets read via "BIG FOUR."

O. McCOBICK, WARREN J. LYNN
Passenger Traffic Mgr., Ass. Gen. Pass. & Tkt. Agt.
CINCINNATI OHIO.

THE POPULAR
MONON ROUTE

For the most direct and comfortable travel between
CINCINNATI and INDIANAPOLIS

CINCINNATI

INDIANAPOLIS

FRANK J. REED,
G. P. & A., Chicago.

E. H. BACON,
G. P. & A., Louisville.

A.B. Robertson & Bro.
DRY GOODS.

Danville, Ky.

NEW Winter : Wraps!

Our Cloaks are all in and we hope to have an opportunity to show them to all the ladies of Lincoln county and their friends. We have all kinds, cheap and fine, all of them made since August and in the latest shapes. As we have about 200 varieties, it is useless to try to give any descriptions. We are strongest in lines of fine tailor-made coats in black and colors, full fancy silk lined at $10, $12, $13.50 and $15. We have cheaper and finer, but these are the garments that we sell most of, and they are stylish enough to please the most fastidious. CAPES at every price, from $2 to $40. Seal plush capes embroidered from $3.50 upwards.

FUR COLLARS and CAPES in all the popular furs and at exceedingly popular prices. MISSES' JACKETS in a great variety of neat and nobby shapes at very reasonable prices.

INFANTS' CLOAKS.—About 20 very handsome sample Cloaks, both all white and fancies, at $4 and $4.50; regular prices $7.50 to $10.

Dress Goods Special.

We have just put on sale 1,000 yards of strictly all-wool ladies' cloth 52 inches wide, in Black, Navy, Browns, Red, Wine, Grays and Mixtures at 29c Yd.

TAILOR SUITINGS.

We call special attention to our line of Whipcord Coverts in three grades, viz: 75c, $1.25 and $1.50, all 48 to 52 inch. Moleskin Suitings, 52 inch, at $1.25 to $1.50. Twilled back Broadcloths at 75c to $1.25. We have all these in all the fashionable shades and they are selling fast. We have plenty of cheaper Dress Goods. Twenty styles of 25c all wool Dress Goods. Quantities of goods at 40c, 50c and 75c, both plain and fancy and the largest line of Black Dress Goods in Central Kentucky. Every piece of our Dress Goods were brought before the advance and we give you the benefit.

Ladies' & Children's Underwear.

If you didn't read our ad. in the INTERIOR JOURNAL of last Tuesday, please do so. Our 25c vests and pants are all full sizes and heavy fleeced. "Oneita" Union Suits at 50c, 65c, $1 and $1.25. Children's all wool, fine quality Union Suits at less than half price. You will save enough on the underwear alone to pay you for coming to Danville.

A.B. Robertson & Bro.
DRY GOODS.

Danville, Ky.

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL

STANFORD, KY., OCTOBER 12, 1897

E. C. WALTON, BUSINESS MANAGER.

PRESCRIPTIONS are filled right and at right prices at Penny's Drug Store.

PERSONALS.

MISS SUE RUT is quite sick. MISS MAGGIE LEWIS is instructing a class in music at Crab Orchard.

MISS NELLIE DILLON, of Lancaster, has been visiting her grandmother.

DAVID RAMBO, of Maywood, left yesterday for Belleflower, Ill., to remain.

THOMAS WEAREN, who is working in Lexington, spent Sunday at home here.

R. G. DENNY spent several days at Lexington last week taking in the trots.

MR. THOMAS H. FOX, of Danville, was one of the many court day visitors yesterday.

MISS MYRTLE DRANE, a Clarksville, Tenn., beauty, is the guest of the Misses Owsley.

MRS. JOHN P. JONES and children went over to Cincinnati Friday to visit her brother.

MR. J. M. DITTO, of Henry county, spent several days with Messrs. D. P. and V. H. Hall.

COL. D. W. TRIBBLE, of Madison, spent several days with his sister, Mrs. P. P. Nunnally.

DAVID W. LYNN and Ed Bailey, of the Maywood section, left Friday for LeRoy, Ill., to live.

MISS MAUD ALLEN, of Springfield, Ill., is visiting her relatives, Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Elmore.

MESDAMES W. B. HOLDERMAN and John A. Wallace, of Lebanon, are visiting relatives here.

MR. J. C. MCCLARY went to Nashville yesterday to take a course of lectures on embalming.

MISS ESSI BUCH, who has a school in the West End, was at home Saturday and Sunday.

PRETTY Miss Mamie Moore, of Louisville, arrived yesterday to visit Miss Mary Daviss Dudderar.

WILLIE LOGAN, son of Mr. William Logan, of the Goshen neighborhood, is down with malarial fever.

MRS. CICERO EUBANKS, of Paducah, is visiting her husband's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Wesley Eubanks.

MISSES BETTIE WEST and Hattie Doty, of Hyattsville, are visiting Misses Mary and Maggie Noel.

MR. J. F. PETTUS, of the Preachersville section, went to Lebanon Sunday to be there in time to hear Bryan.

MRS. THOMAS METCALF, of Jessamine, came over Saturday to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Foster.

MISS MARY ELKIN came home from Hamilton College sick, but is improving so fast that she will return in a day or two.

H. V. BASTIN, who is attending the State College at Lexington, spent several days with his parents at Crab Orchard.

MR. AND MRS. WILLIAM ROYSTON, of Garrard, were over Friday to see Capt. George H. McKinney, who continues quite ill.

MRS. JAMES H. TURNER and little daughter, of Jessamine, are visiting her parents, Rev. and Mrs. W. S. Grinstead.

MR. J. B. OWENS went to Louisville Friday to make a contract for another year, with the implement firm for which he works.

J. L. TOTTON is back from a two-months' trip in Southern Kentucky, Tennessee and Georgia, where he sold hundreds of Superior drills.

MRS. M. S. BAUGHMAN, who has had typhoid fever, after improving very fast, suffered a slight relapse Sunday and was not so well yesterday.

MR. JOE CAIN who has been living in Madison for some time, was here yesterday returning from Isham, Tenn., where he will likely locate.

MESSRS. HARVEY HELM, John P. Jones, J. T. Embury and C. V. Gentry were at Lexington last week—some on business and the others to see the trots.

WILLIAM KISSICK, of Lexington, came over on his wheel Saturday to visit his sister, Mrs. William Hamilton. He made the trip in a little over three hours.

J. B. MERSON left yesterday to represent the Odd Fellows lodge here at the grand lodge meeting at Owensboro. A. C. Sine, the other delegate, could not go.

A DISPATCH in Sunday's Courier-Journal says that Dr. Cicero Eubanks, whose wife is visiting in this county, was thrown from a bicycle Saturday and had his leg broken.

The Misses Owsley have issued invitations to their friends to meet Misses Myrtle Drane, of Clarksville, and Minnie McClain, of Lebanon, Tenn., from 8 to 12 Wednesday evening.

SHERIFF AND MRS. T. D. NEWLAND had been married a quarter of a century Sunday and they celebrated the day by having a big dinner for a number of their immediate relatives.

MR. S. E. LACKEY, of Gallatin, Tenn., is here on business connected with his father's estate. The many friends of his mother will be glad to know that she is in good health and looking forward to a visit to them again next summer.

HOME NEWS.

DANKS fits spectacles.

GOV. HINDMAN is due to speak here to-day.

A NEW stock of guns at Craig & Hocker's.

SORGHUM cans of all sizes at Warren & Shanks'.

PRESCRIPTIONS filled at lowest cash prices at Craig & Hocker's.

SOME dainty patterns in outings just received at W. H. Shanks'.

THE latest things in soft and stiff green hats at W. H. Shanks'.

MR. J. C. FLORENCE has put a nice wooden awning in front of his store.

THREE telephone instruments for sale cheap. M. S. & J. W. Baughman.

BRICK.—200,000 machine brick ready for sale. Pence & Greening, Stanford.

FOR SALE.—Jersey cow; fresh, superior milk and perfectly gentle. Apply to Higgins & McKinney.

THE Stanford band has been engaged to make music for the soldiers reunion at Ottenheim Friday and Saturday.

A NEW and good line of tan, green and heliotrope shoes for men at popular prices can be found at W. H. Shanks'.

IN justice to Marshal Joe A. Shannon, I wish to say that he exhibited no pistol when he went to take my uncle, John Stuart, to Stanford for trial. W. A. Carson.

J. A. HAMMONDS & CO., of Hubble, want all the turkeys in this section and advise the ladies not to engage too soon, as the birds are poor on account of the drouth.

THE grass in H. J. Darst's yard at Rowland was set on fire by sparks from an engine Sunday and as the wind was blowing that way it took manful work to keep the house from burning.

THE Ladies' Aid Society of the Baptist church will entertain the societies of all the other churches next Thursday afternoon at the residence of Mr. J. N. Menefee. A dinner consisting of a number of courses will be served.

DINNER.—Miss Mamie Carter will give a dinner near James Carter's on Hall's Gap Saturday, Oct. 23, for the purpose of raising money to complete the church there. The price will be 25c. Preaching morning and afternoon.

FORGERY.—A. A. Bastin wants to know by what authority and by whom his name was signed to the petition Thomas Terry circulated asking that Mrs. J. S. Young be appointed postmaster at Highland. If not satisfactorily ascertained before, Mr. Bastin will secure the services of the grand jury to investigate.

BARN BURNED.—The barn on the James Guest place in Crab Orchard burned about 5 o'clock Saturday morning together with its contents consisting of a small lot of corn and feed, a buggy and harness and a few farming implements. It is thought that tramps who slept in the barn did the work. Robert Collier had the place rented.

FIRE.—The roof of Mrs. Alice Cloyd's kitchen caught fire at noon Friday, but quick work of several gentlemen who were passing extinguished the flames before any damage to speak of was done. The only water on the place was a bucket of slop and pint or so in a wash pan, but this was used sparingly and was quite enough. The fire company was out in a hurry.

MRS. M. C. SAUFLEY, who thinks that she has the handsomest husband in Kentucky, felt so outraged over the picture that she printed of him last week that she threatened to sue us for damages if we ever used the caricature again. Fearing that she might do so and in her husband's court, we had our friend, E. H. Fox, of Danville, to make us the best possible picture of the judge and the result can be seen on our first page. If Mrs. Saufley doesn't say he improved on her "old man," then we will confess judgment for any sum she may name.

WHO IS HE?—Some two weeks ago a gentleman from the Green river section brought to town a white youth who had made his home in the corn fields around him for several weeks, and leaving him on the court-house steps, the strange young man pulled an ear of corn from his pocket and ate most of it raw. This and other peculiar actions made the authorities put him in jail, where he remained until Saturday when he was tried for lunacy. For a long time he would not let Dr. O'Bannon, who was called in as a witness, feel his pulse and wanted to fight those who spoke to him, but he finally calmed down, tho' stubbornly refused to answer the questions propounded. The jury decided that he was of unsound mind and Sheriff Newland will take him to Lexington to-day. He is about 21, rather pale-faced and sparsely made and is 6 feet 9 inches tall. He will not divulge his name nor tell from whence he came. The officers here are anxious to know who he is and will appreciate any information that will lead to finding out.

N. B.—Where you have more than one quality of any drug ordered, and when we do not specify the maker, Always Send the Best.

That is the way our orders to wholesalers read and that's why your prescriptions are always properly filled here.

PENNY'S DRUG STORE.

New Capes And Jackets.

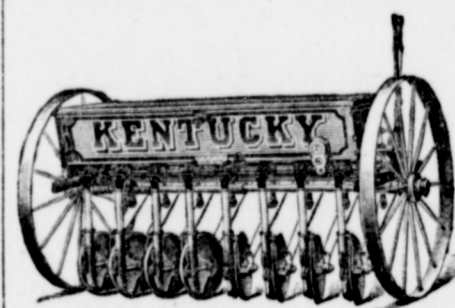

We have just placed on sale the Largest and Most Carefully Selected Line of Ladies' Capes and Jackets ever shown in this section. Never was more care taken to secure the very best values than in the purchase of the above goods. Braid is extensively used and it makes a beautiful trimming. We are showing Capes At $1.25 to $12.50; Jackets At $5 to $12.50.

We wish to call especial attention to our 12 or 15 different styles of Capes and Jackets at $5. We paid especial attention to these popular priced goods. All we ask is an inspection of our stock before you buy.

SEVERANCE & SONS.

The Best

Disc Drill

BEST : MADE !

Lies Don't Go.—Messrs. B. K. Wearen & Son, Stanford—Gentlemen: In reply to your letter will say that the Kentucky Disc Drill stands strictly on its merits; the makers fight their law suits in court and not in the papers and no purchaser of this drill need fear any legal entanglement. Also that other drills must be deficient in real merit when their makers seek to scare people into buying them. We guarantee protection. Yours, Brennan & Co.'s Western Agricultural Works, Louisville, Sept. 2. Bluffs wont work. There is no mistake about this machine being double-gearred. Farmers can see for themselves.

B. K. WEAREN & SON.

UNDERTAKING

BY

J. C. MCCLARY,

Practical Trimmer, Embalmer and Funeral Director.

Also carries a Nice Line of Harness, Saddles, Bridles, Buggy Robes, Horse Blankets, Whips, &c.

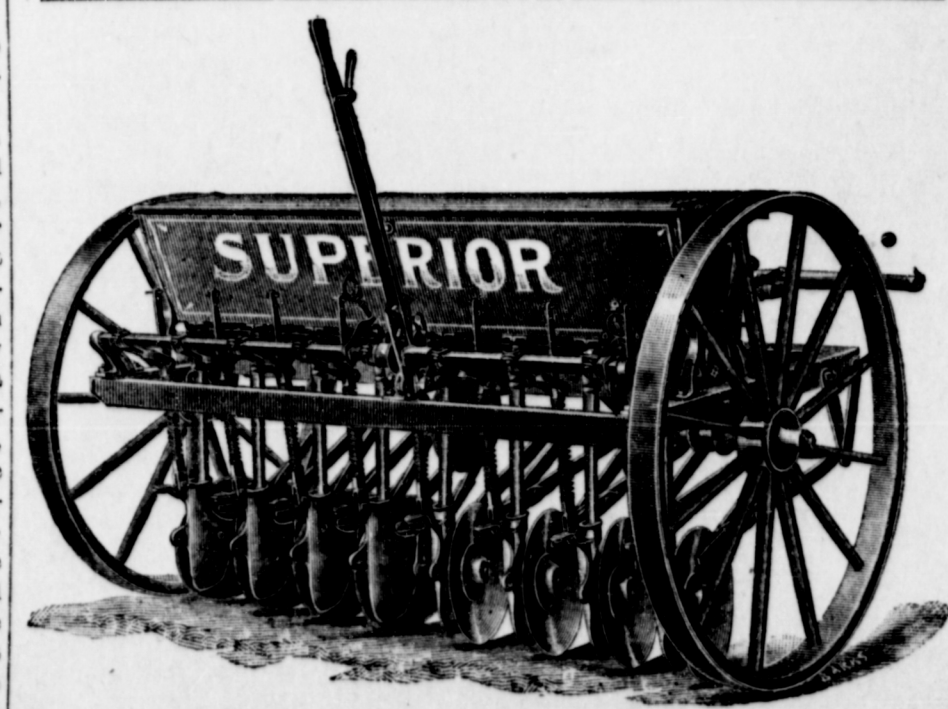

Room Opposite Court-House Square, Stanford, Ky

Furniture, Carpets, Wall Paper, MATTING.

We are making preparations for a big output of goods. When you hear our prices you will then know we mean to sell the goods. Our aim in making these unprecedented prices is to reach out and furnish our adjoining counties, which fact has always proven itself where a customer favored us with a call. We are here for business, quick sales and small profits.

W. W. WITHERS, STANFORD.

Branch Store at Hustonville, H. R. Camnitz, Manager.

The Best is always Imitated. The Superior is the Genuine Disc Drill. Has been thoroughly tested and gives satisfaction. All other Disc Drills are an experiment and an infringement on the Superior. Suit has been entered in the U. S. Court against one company for infringement. Farmers, investigate before buying.

HIGGINS & M'KINNEY.

